No Depreciation Herenbouts.
An authority on financial matters writes:

"The market depreciation since June in thirty active railroads and industrial stocks, amounts to $500,000,000. The Harriman stocks have depreciated $100,000,000, the Hill stocks $65,000,000.

Well, that is bad, and it may be that some Richmond and Virginia people have been caught, but in the meantime mobody has heard of any shrinkage in the value of Richmond real estate and Virginia farm lands. Only yesterday statistics were published showing that all the manufacturing plants and other industries in Richmond are flourishing and making money. The moral can be seen without glasses: Richmond realty, Virginia realty, and Richmond and Virginia industrial development are better things to invest in than watered and juggled railway stocks and trust-controlled industries away off yonder, heaven knows where.

modious bank and office building, $178, 600. Loans and discounts amount te $146,000.

The Lawrenceville Trust Company is a semi-banking institution that has done good business and been a biessing to the town and surrounding section since its incorporation two years ago. The paid-in capital stock is $10, 600, and it has a surplus of nearly $1, 600, and it has a surplus of nearly $1, 600, and it has a surplus of nearly $1, 600, and it has a surplus of nearly $1, 600, and it has a surplus of nearly $1, 600, and it has a spendid high school and its public school buildings, for both white and black children, are new and well equipped. The high school ouilding for whites, which stands on a five-acre lot, cost $15,000, and has 200 or more students.

St. Paul's Normal and Industrial school for colored people of both sexes is a most successful institution. It is supported in the main by the Northman of the Atlante Coast Line and the Virginian Railway, is waking up. Already there are about so the town and surrounding section sank and large wood-work. The paid-industrial school of colored people of many and shipping facilities, it is in a splendid farming section, and there is a great deal of timber standing in the cortest thereabouts, and the people are beginning to think Jarratt ought to be a considerable town with many actories and more business right. They need to get together and make their plans. They need to lay off there will so at the business right their town and let the many prospectors in the country know what inducements were liberal. Some ambitious villages and towns have flash-chool has ample grounds for farm demonstration and farm work. There are about 600 students, who come from various States and from Cuba and Hatti, but the vast majority of them are from Virginia and North Carolina The school has an electric plant, and homes sometimes make adjoining lands worth a hundred times more than they would otherwise be.
